

SURVIVOR FANTASY LEAGUE • SEASON 51 • PUBLIC REPORT FOR ALL CAPTAINS

League Report — Episode 4

“That’s The Magic Of Survivor”

Aired Wednesday, October 14, 2026 • The Swap Shakes Up The Game

A tribe swap split the game into three tribes — and three teams finished the night tied at the top of the Episode 4 scoring. Dina and Toka earned safety, new Savu went to Tribal Council, and Jenna Doore’s torch was snuffed in a 4-1 vote.

The Episode At A Glance

The swap redrew every alliance map in the League. Castaways were split across three tribes: a new Savu, a new Toka, and the brand-new Dina tribe. Nobody kept their old beach, and nobody kept their old numbers.

In the combined reward and immunity challenge, Dina finished first and Toka finished second, so both tribes were safe for the night. New Savu came up short, went to Tribal Council, and voted out Jenna Doore by a 4-1 margin.

TEAM 1

16

Captain Kacie

TEAM 2

16

Captain Ellynn

TEAM 3

16

Captain JB3

TEAM 4

11

Chief Bigorous

TEAM 5

-2

Captain Janet

Three teams at 16 points made Episode 4 the tightest scoring night of the season so far — and the standings on Page 3 show just how close the race at the top has become.

Episode 4 Team Scores — Three Teams Tie At The Top

Every point below comes straight off the Episode 4 scoresheet. Immunity and voting with the majority paid 4 points apiece across the League — which is exactly how three different teams landed on the same total.

Team 1 — Captain Kacie

16 Points

A perfect spread: all four castaways scored 4 points. Eric Macksoud and Danny “Kilby” Kilby were immune on Dina, Carter Krull was immune on Toka, and Ori Jean-Charles voted with the majority on Savu.

Team 2 — Captain Ellynn

16 Points

Four castaways, four scores of 4. Brady Booker, Cristian Chavez, Maggie Nestor, and Lewis Kelly all delivered, keeping Team 2 right in the thick of the title race.

Team 3 — Captain JB3

16 Points

The same story at the top of the standings: Sharonda Cox, Mike Pinsky, Linnea Capobianco, and An “Thien An” Nguyen each scored 4 points — a clean sweep that protected first place.

Team 4 — Chief Bigorious

11 Points

Kristin Flickinger scored 4 and Angelica “Jelly” Loblack scored 4 through immunity and voting with the majority, while Alexis Levine added 3 points after taking one vote.

Team 5 — Captain Janet

-2 Points

A tough swap night. Devin Way scored 4 points for voting with the majority, but Jenna Doore was the vote-out, scoring -6 points as her torch was snuffed.

The Takeaway: Episode 4 rewarded full squads. The three teams that got 4 points from every castaway share the weekly crown — and the one team that lost a castaway paid for it in the standings.

Current Standings After Episode 4 — Captain JB3 Holds The Lead

Place	Captain	Team	Total Points
1	Captain JB3	Team 3	66
2	Captain Ellynn	Team 2	63
3 (Tied)	Chief Bigorious	Team 4	55
3 (Tied)	Captain Kacie	Team 1	55
5	Captain Janet	Team 5	3

Captain JB3 stays on top at 66, with Captain Ellynn just three points back at 63. Chief Bigorious and Captain Kacie are locked together at 55 apiece, and Captain Janet faces a long climb from 3 after losing Jenna Doore.

League Announcements

The Trade Window Remains Open

The trade window is still open — and the market is still waiting for its first move. No trades have been made yet this season.

All Hail Mary Picks Are Still Alive

Every Hail Mary pick in the League is still alive after Episode 4. The long-shot money is still on the table for everyone.

Good Human Nominations Are Due Tuesday

Good Human nominations for Episode 4 moments are due Tuesday, October 20 at 12:00pm ET. Get your nominations in before the deadline. There is no Good Human winner to announce in this report.

Next Episode Teaser — A Double Tribal Council Looms

Episode 5 airs Wednesday, October 21 — and the preview points to a double Tribal Council. With 16 castaways left across three tribes, two torches could go out in one night. Nobody is safe for long.